First Lady Conference
a Safe Place for Pastors' Wives

Greetings Sister in Christ!

It is my honor and pleasure to serve you as host of the First Lady Conference. I just want to send a heartfelt thank you for inspiring me for over the past 12 years. Your support, testimonies and prayers have encouraged and anchored me.

For more than 35 years, I have had the privilege to walk in ministry with my husband, friend and pastor, Dr. Tony Evans. Early in this ministry, God placed a strong need to gather pastors' wives together for a time to empower, connect, grow and renew. This is a created atmosphere for you to be totally you and totally free. This is a significant moment to worship, relax, exchange victories, heal and fellowship with other pastors' wives.

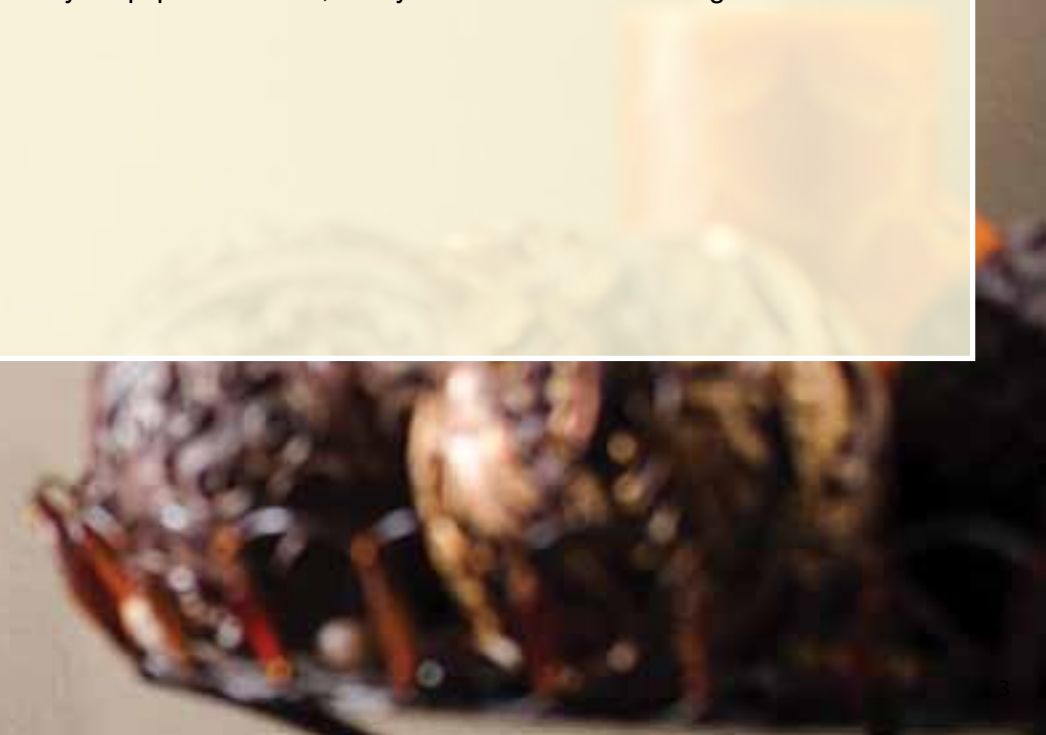

The God we serve is so impressive and remarkable. He is sure to meet you at this conference. Our advisory team and I have been prayerful in planning this conference. It is our desire to meet the needs of the whole woman; therefore, I encourage you to take full advantage of every session, workshop, network session, roundtable and panel discussion. This occasion is just for you.

I pray that you will leave inspired, motivated and strengthened to continue this journey. The Lord doesn't always call the equipped, but He always equips the called, and you are called to the Kingdom....

For such a time as this,

Teach To Transform: Expository Bible Teaching For Women

❖ Sue Edwards
Senior Pastors' Wives Advanced Studies Certificate Course

The Bible is our most powerful ministry tool! Have you ever wondered if God wants you to teach it? Come and learn the process from a Dallas Theological Seminary professor, Dr. Sue Edwards, a Bible teacher with over 30 years ministry experience. Open with words that grab your audience and conclude leaving them challenged and motivated. Extract your message from the heart of the text to ensure that you are teaching God's Word and not our own. With God's enabling, both the novice and the experienced communicator can teach to transform!

Theology of Worship

❖ Mary Alessi

This is a comprehensive study of praise and worship. The study includes topics such as Worship in the Old Testament and the New Testament, The Priority of Worship, Spiritual Worship, Hindrances to Worship, Reverence towards God and The Imperative of Worship as a lifestyle for every believer. This study will help you discover a more satisfying worship-filled life. You will also find out how worshipping God 1) Positions you to receive God and His blessings for you, 2) Protects you from the attacks of the enemy, 3) Prepares your heart to receive God's heart, and 4) Guides your steps victoriously.

Implementing Change In Ministry

❖ Joye Baker
Senior Pastors' Wives Advanced Studies Certificate Course

Are you moving to a new pastorate? Starting a new ministry in your present church? Wanting to suggest some new ideas among the women in your church? Things are always changing in ministry. Some people accept change easily and others resist it. New opportunities are possible, but often change involves many challenges and difficulties. How you facilitate the change process often determines whether or not you will be successful. This workshop will help you understand the process of change, gain insights into the different responses people have to change, and learn effective ways to successfully implement change in your ministry.

Praying to Change Your Life

❖ Suzette Caldwell

For too long, too many people, including believers, have viewed prayer as passive, ambiguous and just plain boring. Some use prayer like an ATM card; they use it when they need something or when they fall into horrendous situations. Well, kiss those days good-bye and start praying to change your life. Learn how to pray powerful, efficacious prayers that will produce God's will for you and your family. Please note: this is not your grandmother's prayer class. Get ready to be changed forever!

The Funeral of Fear

❖ Cokeisha Bailey-Robinson

Fear or Faith? Which consumes your life? Join us in discovering God's power in us to overcome fear. First ladies, come and have a funeral over your fears. Walk into your liberty.

Married To The Ministry- A Problem Or A Privilege?

❖ Janet Denison

The answer is in the attitude. This workshop is designed to renew your joy at being married to "the man and the ministry." This is a fun look at pastoral problems and the amazing privilege of being the one God chose to handle them. Is the role of pastor's wife a burden or a blessing? The answer depends on the attitude.

The Ministry Mates' Survival Kit

❖ Tara Jenkins

In every profession, there are required tools that must be learned and used as a person functions in their specific role. Pastors' wives are often expected to innately know specific things they have that have never been taught. In this intensive workshop, learn the tools you need to survive and thrive in this unique role as a ministry mate!

Living Beyond Expectations Of Others

❖ Mary Jones

Our conception of who we are and what we've become can directly be related to early relationships in our lives that were forced upon us as beliefs and expectations that were unrealistic and caustic. These expectations shaped our self-worth and motivation to become what we heard we should become. Ministry did not change these expectations; it merely triggered the trauma that existed from the weight of these "assumptions." This session will offer activities, interactive discussions and strategies that will equip you to handle the sense of failure, rejection, guilt and shame that accompanies the failure to meet the expectations of others.

Living Life With Excellence: Balancing Home, Work, Church and Home Management Skills

❖ Devi Titus

Perfection and Excellence are two different things; excellence is about your journey and perfection is about your destination. Life-long principles with practical skills will combine to help you bring order and effectiveness in your ministry life whether you are at home, work, or church. Good management and organization skills will be demonstrated as you soar to a higher level in living your life with excellence. Devi will elevate your values for your home and your ministry which will give you a greater sense of accomplishment and effectiveness.

Body, Soul & Spirit

❖ Wanda Bolton-Davis
Feeling overwhelmed by ministry? Are you physically tired, emotionally drained and spiritually numb? “Christian Spirituality without an integration of emotional health can be deadly to yourself, your relationship with God and the people around you” (Peter Scazzero) As a licensed professional and based on Peter Scazzero’s book, Emotionally Healthy Spirituality, Wanda will share the critical significance of taking care of your spiritual, physical and emotional self, in the midst of taking care of others in ministry. Wanda will explain 10 signs of emotionally unhealthy spirituality and will give you practical steps on how you can live truthfully, embrace your limits and care for your body, soul, and spirit.

Off The Chain: Letting Go Of Those Things That Bind Us

❖ Tara Jenkins
How many times have we heard the term “off the chain”? In this power-packed class, discover how to take your freedom in Christ to the next level. It is time that once and for all, we are off the chain of low self-esteem, negative thinking, the spirit of fear and anything else that hinders us from being the women God has ordained! “Girl, it’s time for you to be off the chain!”

The Marksman

❖ Mary Alessi
The Holy Spirit, The Pastor, or His Wife... who’s in charge?

The Stewardship Of Your Influence

❖ Donna Skell
Being a good manager of what God has given you is called "stewardship." Most think of money when we say stewardship, but stewardship is more than that. One of the primary things that we have the responsibility to manage for God is the influence that he has given us. In this session we will talk about small things we can say or do that will influence others for Christ.

Our society is full of human wrath from road rage and employee rampages to vengeful behavior and judgment. What many people do not realize is many of our issues stem from issues with forgiveness from our past. There is freedom in forgiveness. Come see how to be free, released and seek reconciliation.

Spiritual Warfare

❖ Mary Jones
God's plan for us is a life of joy, contentment, and eternal peace. But our adversary has another plan. Satan seeks to create conflict across the backdrop of our lives that will prevent us from knowing God more intimately and living more victorious for Jesus Christ. His most effective weapons aren't the big, obvious ones, but subtle, secretive schemes. When you least expect it, this weapon can evoke such destruction and explosive consequences in our lives, that before we know it, we are in a full fledged "war." Discover the key principles that can help you live a victorious, abundant life in spite of Satan's schemes, without compromising what you know God has given you to do.

Is The Lord Building Your House or Are You Tearing It Down? - Psalm 127-128

❖ Rhoda Gonzales

Taking Off The Mask (When Everything is Not Okay)

❖ Meredith Sheppard
Many counselors and psychologist define intimacy as, "into-me-see." But that's impossible to do from behind a mask. In this workshop we will take a look at some of the reasons why pastors' wives resort to wearing masks...and how to remove them, revealing the wonderful, sometimes wounded, woman behind the masks. "And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the Lord's glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit" 2 Corinthians 3:18
